All I could do at the moment is give an up vote. It's like being the drummer boy on The Little Drummer Boy who had nothing of value, but his drum beating talent.

Hi if you guys could focus on the black vote and analyze that

Focus on how there's a stark difference between black who voted in the swing states and non swing states

I'd be interested in that kind of presentation

I like the contradiction videos. Like when Hillary lied publicly about her email server and then it immediately was contradicted by Comey. I think those kinds of videos are effective at showing the lies. Show the dates before when some crooked politician says how safe and secure the election was with a date at the bottom then cute to a testimony show what B.S. that politician was spewing.

I think you could animate a simple video of how the fraud occurred and then voice it over or video over with the testimony explaining how the fraud worked. If we get a good video I would be willing to donate to run it as a TV advertisement (paid for by <https://TheDonald.win!!!>) ves also the media stories that totally contradict each other e.g. Hunter Biden

▲ datahog1776 2 months ago +6 / -0

This. And the kind of video that shows how the narrative changed over time... From there is no fraud to the fraud isnt enough to change the election, to even though there is enough fraud to change the results it wont matter legally, etc etc etc

Is it possible we can highlight the fact that that Russia has been largely irrelevant to us since before the 1990's, meanwhile China has had explosive growth and on track to surpass our great economy.

<https://i.maga.host/MA73Zcb.png>

Trump is the only one talking about China. The media and establishment is fully compromised. Biden is in the pocket of China.

Not sure if you already have the data from our wiki @ <https://wiki.audittheelection.com> . I have been AWOL on this project for a while, so the wiki appears to have been vandalized, but the data is still available in the revision history if you guys can put in a little effort to revert. Some really good stuff in there if you're n

▼ If you find time, I think a video based on the outline I started here would go a long way to helping normies understand what happened on election day.

2 Did you make it an infographical video like Prager U? Did you include the mathematical impossibilities demographical impossibilities between swing state Democrat vote counting centers and demographic identical cities and counties in other states that went to Trump as was expected? How about the con:

You better be thorough!
